IAN CHRISTENSEN

Ian Christensen is a student with the Dual Bachelor programme between SciencesPo Paris and Columbia University, majoring in political science and sustainable development.
He has worked closely with animals all his life, beginning his career in activism protesting local fur stores when he was 14.
He has since worked on behalf of animals and the environment in New York, Athens, and the French Riviera with TAF- Animal Fund.

He believes that if people better understand animals, and their impact on them, life will improve for everyone on this planet.

May 2020