

Testimonial:

“My experience at TAF was a time of great personal and professional growth, which allowed me to meet fantastic people from different backgrounds and profiles, gain significant knowledge on environmental issues, develop communicational and managerial skills, and to take action advocating for the protection of marine biodiversity.

TAF is an environment where each unique skillset is valued, and where volunteers can thrive while contributing to a great cause.”

Liv Bastos, May 2022

